International Workshop on Corruption, Natural Resources and the Environment

Santika Hotel, Bogor 24th and 25th October, 2012

Asia Pacific Network for Environmental Governance and

Center for International Forestry Research

DAY 1

8.30-8:40  Opening of workshop

Luca Tacconi  The Australian National University, Australia
Introduction to the workshop

Peter Holmgren  Director General, Center for International Forestry Research
Opening remarks

8.40-10:10  Session 1   Chair: Luca Tacconi

Danny Marks  Advisor to the Environment Program: the NGO Forum on Cambodia
The political economy of corruption in Mainland Southeast Asia: Reducing capacity to address climate change

Sarah Milne  The Australian National University, Australia
The darker shades of green: Unpacking corruption in an international conservation project in Cambodia

10:10 – 10:30 Tea break

10:30 – 12:00  Session 2   Chair: Andrew Wardell

Julia Urrunaga  Environmental Investigation Agency, Peru
The laundering machine: fraud and corruption in Peru’s concession system and the export of illegally logged timber

Fiona Downs  The Australian National University, Australia
Luca Tacconi
Corruption risks, forest ownership and the distribution of timber royalties in Papua New Guinea

12:00 – 1:30 Lunch
1:30 – 3:00 Session 3  Chair: Paolo Cerutti

Ellen Pfieffer  UNESCO-IHE, Delft, The Netherlands
Malcom Hamdard
The effects of corruption on the implementation of (water) resource management policies: insights from five African countries

Mauro Masiero  University of Padova, Italy
Davide Pattenella, Laura Secco and Diego Florian
Historical, forgotten and new illegal activities: the changing patterns of the Italian forestry sector

3:00 – 3:30 Tea break

3:30 – 5:00 Session 4  Chair: Luca Tacconi

Jacob Phelps  National University of Singapore, Singapore
Local institutions facilitate conservation rule-breaking

Phuc Xuan To  The Australian National University, Australia
Sango Mahanty, Wolfram Dressler
Corruption in Vietnamese and Lao timber commodity chains: implications for FLEGT and REDD+

DINNER – AUTHORS ONLY
7-9 pm  Bogor Botanic Gardens

DAY 2

8.30-10.00 Session 1  Chair: Paolo Cerutti

Mario R. Samame Espino  Law, Environment and Natural Resources, Peru
How to reduce corruption and strengthen governance in the Peruvian forest sector?

Simon Butt  The University of Sydney, Australia
Indonesia’s regional anti-corruption courts as forums to resolve natural resource management corruption cases

10:00 – 10:30 Tea break

10:30 – 12:00 Session 2  Chair: Andrew Wardell

Dil Raj Khanal  Federation of Community Forest Users, Nepal
Impacts of corruption in community-based forestry management system in Nepal

Sam Wong  University of Liverpool, United Kingdom
War on Corruption – Exploring the ‘Decentralisation-Elite Capture-Corruption’ Nexus in Common-Pool Resource Management in Developing Countries
12:00 – 1:30 Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION – RESERVED TO AUTHORS AND CONVENORS

1:30 – 4:00 (with tea break) Chairs: Luca Tacconi and Andrew Wardell

Summary discussion about general themes and conclusions from the workshop

Discussion about publication options for the papers

End of workshop